DETAILED ACTION

1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the abstract is not within the range of 50 to 150 words. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 11-15 are directed under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 11-15 are directed methods that merely perform calculations and manipulations of data. In order for such a claimed invention that merely performs calculations and manipulations of data to be statutory, the claimed invention must accomplish a practical application, and is not directed to a preemption of a calculation and/or manipulation data. That is the claimed invention must transform an article or physical object to a different state or thing, or produce a useful, concrete and tangible result and not cover every substantial practical application. See State Street 47 USPQ2d, Benson 175 USPQ, and “Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility”, OG Notices: 22 November 2005. It is clear from claims 11-15 that the claimed method merely involve in calculations and manipulations of data to transform a set of numbers to a not the set of numbers. They do not transform an article or physical object to a different state or thing. The input are numbers and the output are also number. Further, the calculations and manipulations of data as recited in the claims fail to provide a real world result besides a mere set of numbers which are useful, concrete and tangible. Therefore, claims 11-15 are directed to non-statutory subject matter as the claimed invention fails to accomplish a practical application. Further, since the claims appear to cover every substantial practical application, they are also directed to a preemption of the claimed manipulations and calculations of data.

4. Applicant's arguments filed on 01/10/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive regarding the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 101. It is respectfully submitted that the claimed computer method, as other nonstatutory method, may improve a computation in some aspects relative to some other method, it does not transform a transform an article or physical object to a different state or thing, and does not provide a tangible result but a mere set of numbers, and thus is non statutory.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
